From the moment we leave for Northwoods, to the moment we return to Williamston, the Scout Oath and the Scout Law are the behavior rules at all times. As a Scout, you should be capable of regulating your own behavior to meet this standard. Violations will be dealt with appropriate to their nature, severity, and the overall goals of the Troop. Behavior which places anyone's health or safety at risk, or which represents a severe disregard for the principles of Scouting will place you at risk of being sent home at your parent/guardian's expense.

"As a member of Troop 63 and camper at Northwoods Scout Reservation, I agree to abide by the Scout Oath and Scout Law and to cooperate with Troop Leadership in furthering its ideals. I understand that if I am in violation, I jeopardize my good standing with Troop 63, my parents may be notified, and I may be sent home immediately from Northwoods at my parents expense."
